The accommodation comprises: A communal entrance with intercom secure entry leading to a magnificent hallway and staircase to the second floor. The front door opens to the Reception Hall with large cloaks and storage cupboard, providing access to all rooms.

Positioned to the front, the spacious lounge features space for formal dining and a sitting area with elegant fireplace, as well as a study area. This light and bright room has commanding views from windows on two aspects and offers plenty of space for relaxing or entertaining.

The kitchen has a range of fitted wall and base units with coordinated work surfaces and fitted appliances, including an American-style fridge freezer and wine chiller. The kitchen also offers an area designed and furnished for breakfasting or informal dining. A window to the side provides plenty of natural light.

The hallway includes a large storage cupboard offering a very useful drying and airing facility.

The main bedroom enjoys beautiful views over the surrounding communal gardens, grounds, and mansion lawn. A dressing area with built-in wardrobes leads to a superb en-suite bathroom featuring a free-standing bathtub, vanity unit with wash basin, wall-mounted toilet, and walk-in shower enclosure.

Bedroom two has large built-in wardrobes and spectacular views over open countryside. It could also serve as an ideal double guest room or large study. The modern tiled shower room features a walk-in shower enclosure, wash basin, and toilet.

The property comes with a garage. Whalton Park is approximately one mile to the east of Bolam Lake and a short drive to Ponteland, Morpeth, and Newcastle International Airport. The original building, known as Gallowhill Hall, was constructed in 1888, with conversion to what is now Whalton Park commencing in 2000. The community of Whalton Park successfully self-manages their own Management Company.
