Green Oaks

Broadwoodkelly, Winkleigh

- Contemporary four bedroom home in a peaceful Devon village
- Exposed oak finishes and plenty of glass
- 4 bedrooms with master ensuite and walk-in wardrobe
- Spacious kitchen/dining room with character
- Impressive first floor sitting room with full height windows
- Ground floor underfloor heating and efficient air source system
- Double garage with remote doors, power, utility space and loft storage

This contemporary four bedroom home sits in a peaceful Devon village with lovely countryside views, a large garden, a double garage and spacious, well-planned accommodation. It was originally built to a high standard and has been updated in recent years, offering a comfortable, energy-efficient home in a quiet rural setting. Broadwoodkelly is a pretty village with a friendly feel, surrounded by rolling fields and served by a school bus route and a nearby farm shop. Winkleigh is about three miles away with everyday amenities, and Okehampton is within easy reach for a wider range of shops, schools and access to Dartmoor.

The house has a welcoming entrance hall with exposed oak framing giving it a unique appeal, there's full height glass panels and a turning oak staircase too.

The kitchen and dining room stretch across the back of the property, looking out over the garden and the countryside beyond. It is a great family space with a bespoke fitted kitchen, granite worktops, a Falcon range cooker, an island with hardwood surface and a wood-burner. Two ground floor double bedrooms and a bathroom sit off the hallway, making this level versatile for guests or family living.

Upstairs, the sitting room is a superb feature, with exposed oak framing and full height windows that make the most of the countryside views plus another wood-burner to add to the character and warmth. There is a study or fourth bedroom, a guest WC and a generous main bedroom suite with ensuite bathroom and walk-in wardrobe.

The property has an efficient air source heating and hot water system, underfloor heating to the ground floor, radiators upstairs, full double glazing and a rainwater harvester for garden use.

Outside, a brick paved driveway leads to the large double garage, which has remote controlled doors, power, lighting, utility space and storage. It's worth noting that the double garage of Green Oaks is attached to the neighbours double garage, hence the linked detached description. We love the fact you can easily move from the house to garage without going outside too. The rear garden is private and level, mainly laid to lawn, with seating areas, a kitchen garden with raised beds and greenhouse, a summerhouse with power and a well-built workshop and potting shed.

WINKLEIGH is home to The Mad Butcher, the 750-year-old Winkleigh Fair, and is the only village in Devon with the remains of two 12th century castles. The centre of the village features winding, thatched-lined streets leading to the market square around which are dotted several shops and amenities, as well as the well-regarded Kings Arms pub. In recent years the village has expanded to include modern housing developments taking advantage of the village's position amid a good network of roads that quickly link it with towns further afield. Buses also make use of the road network and regular services run to Barnstaple, Exeter, Hatherleigh, and Okehampton, the latter of which has the nearest supermarkets to Winkleigh. Its proximity to Chulmleigh Academy (OFSTED Good) is another lure, as is the village primary school (OFSTED Good). While the annual Winkleigh Fair unites the community in a week-long calendar of events, the thriving community centre, village hall, and sports centre, ensure there's usually something going on daily and weekly.
