Chain free, this handsome semi detached property offers character features within a lovely village location. Friendly and welcoming, Ashington is well placed for easy access to the coast or to Horsham and beyond. There are a number of shops in the village, plus a cafe, pub, Indian restaurant, church and primary school. Older children catch a bus to Steyning Grammar from a stop just down the road. With plenty of green space and some lovely walks, the village offers a wonderful lifestyle for young and old alike.

Set beyond a small garden, the cottage's front door leads straight into the large living room, with a cosy open fire and stairs heading upstairs. The breakfast kitchen has a range cooker and beamed ceiling, space for a table and chairs, plus access to the driveway and the rear garden behind it. There's a useful study and a downstairs loo. Upstairs, both bedrooms are doubles, one featuring a stunning vaulted ceiling. The bathroom is upstairs and the loft with ladder and boarding provides additional storage space.
