This flat is situated on one of Chelsea's most desirable residential streets. The open-plan reception room, with plenty of space for living and dining, boasts a large bay window, which floods the room with natural light. A beautiful focal fireplace forms the heart of this room, with bespoke cabinetry on either side. The stylish kitchen features an island and high-quality integrated appliances. Floor-to-ceiling cabinets have been added to maximise storage. Highlights include high ceilings, ornate cornicing, classic panelling and solid wooden flooring. A calm and inviting colour palette has been used throughout. The double bedroom has excellent fitted wardrobes and a generous en-suite bathroom. A guest cloakroom and under-stairs storage, including a utility space, complete the accommodation. Above this space, a generous loft storage space is easily accessible with a built-in ladder.
