An Exceptional Detached Family Residence |
Circa 1901 | Approaching 3,400 sq ft

A magnificent double-fronted detached Edwardian residence, this unique family home has been meticulously renovated to an outstanding standard. Combining timeless period elegance with sophisticated contemporary design, it offers beautifully balanced accommodation, perfectly suited to modern family living.

Behind its striking, perfectly symmetrical façade, the home retains a wealth of original architectural features, including high ceilings, ornate cornicing, decorative entrance tiling, characterful fireplaces and a log burner. These heritage details are complemented by thoughtfully integrated modern touches, including stylish Crittall doors and impeccably designed interiors throughout.

Arranged over three generous floors, the versatile accommodation comprises five spacious bedrooms, including a luxurious principal suite occupying its own private area, featuring a boutique-style dressing room and beautifully appointed en-suite bathroom. Three further bathrooms serve the residence, while the reception space includes an opulent drawing room, elegant lounge, family room/study and an impressive kitchen and breakfast room.

The heart of the home is the stunning open-plan kitchen living space, thoughtfully designed with a central island, integrated appliances and carefully planned workstations, seamlessly connecting to the principal living areas to create an exceptional space for family life. A separate utility room, cloakroom lobby and guest WC/shower room, offer hidden convenience.

Ideally positioned close to Hadley Common, High Barnet Underground Station, New Barnet Station and a selection of highly regarded schools, this remarkable home represents a rare opportunity to acquire one of the area's finest examples of a substantial detached Edwardian residence, where beautifully preserved period character meets exceptional contemporary family living.
