WINDLEY HALL – An exquisite Grade II listed Georgian home set on a spectacular south facing garden plot of approximately 1 acre with countryside views.

The property has the added advantage of fronting onto a quiet country road which gives access to unlimited walks directly into the beautiful Derbyshire countryside.

For those wanting to enjoy the wonderful garden the property benefits from full sun from dawn until dusk a great party house – a real must see !

Dating back to circa 1735 Windley Hall is a truly captivating Grade II listed residence. It is surrounded by a spectacular south facing formal walled garden extending to around 1 acre, this exceptional property is located in a prominent position, occupying a truly enviable rural location, whilst also being only 2 miles from the popular village of Duffield. The perfect setting for one of Derbyshire's finest country homes.

The Location

The hamlet of Windley is approximately one mile from the village of Turnditch and Cowers Lane which provides a selection of village inns and local garage. It is situated some 8 miles from the centre of Ashbourne known as the gateway to the Peak District National Park and approximately 8 miles from the City of Derby.

The nearby village of Duffield provides a regular train service to Derby and onward to St Pancras Station, London. As well as the train service to Derby there is a regular bus service ( every 15 mins ) from Duffield to Derby. There is local squash and tennis at the renowned Duffield Tennis & Squash Club nearby. Private education includes Repton, Denstone, Abbotsholme, Trent College, Derby Grammar School, Derby High School and Foremark Preparatory School. Local recreational facilities include Carsington Water with its trout fishing and sailing, whilst there are multiple golf courses at Duffield, Kedleston and Ashbourne.
