

11 Endeston Road

, Middlesbrough, TS3 0HG

£725 Per month

Located on a quiet road in a popular residential area of Middlesbrough, this house falls within the catchment area of several local schools and has handy access to local shops and large chain supermarkets.

The three bedroom terraced home has recently undergone some improvement work including decorating a new flooring.

The ground floor opens into an entrance hallway which provides access to the extensive open plan reception room with the kitchen being just off the dining area providing a great area for family catch ups after a busy day of work and school.

Upstairs the family bathroom comes with a three piece white suite including an overhead shower. The main bedroom has hard wood flooring and provides quiet and privacy being located to the rear of the property, the two front bedrooms would both be ideal for the growing family.

Externally there are gardens to the front and rear with parking available just out the front of the house.

Properties of this quality don't hang around long in the current market so please contact Progression Lettings today to arrange your viewing.
