- Mid terrace two bedroom house
- Cosy interiors filled with gentle charm
- Quiet location
- Bright bedrooms with lots of natural light
- Garden
- Friendly community with parks close by
- Schools nearby
- Great transport links

Full of character and clearly cherished by its long term owner, this delightful two bedroom mid terrace home on a peaceful South Bermondsey street radiates warmth from the moment you step inside. The inviting reception room feels wonderfully cosy and the kitchen, lovingly cared for over the years, opens out to a private rear garden, which is a charming outdoor space perfect for potted plants, morning coffee or simple quiet moments. Upstairs, two bright and well proportioned bedrooms provide comfortable retreats, complemented by a neat and practical bathroom. Families will appreciate the closest primary school, Galleywall Primary – City of London Academy, just 360 yards away, as well as the City of London Academy (Southwark) for older children at approximately 660 yards. The gentle, lived in character throughout makes the home feel instantly welcoming.

Beyond the front door, the wider neighbourhood contributes to the home's peaceful charm, with the expansive and much loved Southwark Park close by, and offers a 63acre green haven offering lakeside walks, gardens, open lawns and friendly community spaces that locals treasure. Excellent transport from South Bermondsey, Surrey Quays and Canada Water ensures the home remains well connected, while nearby cafés, riverside strolls and everyday conveniences complete the picture. This is a truly homely property. Warm, gentle and full of heart, ready for its next owner to enjoy and make their own.
