This charming house is a prime example of an Edwardian family home, built ca. 1910. The property has been lovingly maintained and updated throughout the years yet retains many original features and character.

The Sitting and Dining rooms are both generously sized and suited for entertaining. The Kitchen-Breakfast room is bright with modern fittings and is supplemented by the utility room, the conservatory offers views over the rear garden and is positioned to make the most of the afternoon sun. The five bedrooms are all large doubles with the principal room benefitting from an en-suite bathroom, in addition to a further bathroom and shower room. There is a wealth of storage including a boarded loft room.

The plot is a level half an acre and wraps around the house with plenty of natural privacy in the rear. A double garage is accessed over the driveway with off-street parking for numerous cars.

Ideally set in this welcoming and popular residential area, and situated in this quiet lane, the property is within just a few minutes' walk of Kingswood Village and Station, whilst also being close to open countryside walks. The village offers local shopping and the Kingswood Arms gastro-pub. For more diverse shopping and supermarkets, Reigate, Epsom and Banstead Village are all within a few minutes' drive.

There are frequent rail services to London Bridge and Victoria from Kingswood Station and nearby, the A217 provides an arterial route to London and to the M25 motorway at Reigate Hill (J8), giving swift access to Heathrow and Gatwick Airports in some 45 and 25 minutes respectively.

Excellent schools including Kingswood Primary, Chinthurst, Aberdour, Epsom College and Reigate Grammar are easily reached with some school buses collecting in the village.

One of Surrey's most prestigious villages, Kingswood has two golf clubs, its own tennis club and is encompassed by protected countryside and there are many venues for sport, leisure and cultural pursuits in the surrounding area.
