Externally the gardens are enclosed to the rear enjoying a tranquil streamside setting with a degree of privacy.

Location

St Austell is an historic market town steeped in history and has a long association with the local China Clay industry. A variety of high street multiples are found within the town centre as well as a mainline railway station, leisure centre with places of interest locally including the historic port of Charlestown which has been utilised for many television and period dramas. Within Charlestown are a variety of popular cafes, restaurants and independent shops with further amenities being found at Holmbush and of course the famed Eden Project is also within close proximity.

The cathedral city of Truro is approximately fifteen miles distant, this being the main centre in Cornwall for business and is home to The Hall for Cornwall located on the piazza.
