

Asking Price £249,500

This unique and beautifully presented double fronted two-bedroom period home occupies a highly convenient central location just moments from Plymouth City Centre, Plymouth University and Plymouth Railway Station, making it ideal for professionals, first-time buyers or those seeking a distinctive city home. The property combines charming period character with contemporary styling and thoughtful improvements throughout. The ground floor offers a welcoming entrance porch leading into a spacious and light-filled lounge featuring high ceilings, large bay windows and stylish décor. The lounge flows through to a separate dining room which in turn leads to a modern fitted kitchen, complete with sleek cabinetry, integrated appliances and attractive herringbone effect flooring. To the rear of the property is a private enclosed courtyard garden providing a low-maintenance outdoor space ideal for relaxing or entertaining. A particularly valuable feature is the garage located to the rear, accessed via a service lane and internally, a rare and highly desirable addition for a central Plymouth property. There is also a useful side storage with new double PVC doors offering additional storage large enough for motor bikes. The first floor hosts two well-proportioned bedrooms alongside a spacious family bathroom fitted with a modern suite including bath and shower. From this level there is access to a stunning roof terrace, providing an excellent outdoor seating area with elevated views over the surrounding rooftops. A further staircase leads to the impressive loft space, currently utilised as a bedroom area and workspace, featuring skylights that flood the space with natural light and create a truly unique living environment whilst providing a good degree of additional storage. Blending character, style and practicality, this exceptional property offers flexible accommodation and rare features for such a central location, including a larger than average garage/workshop, roof terrace and courtyard garden. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the quality and individuality of this charming home.
