To the front of the house sits the living room, a bright and well-proportioned space that enjoys a comfortable sense of width and depth. There is ample room for generous seating arrangements, making it a relaxing setting for everyday living as well as a sociable space for entertaining.

Flowing through from the sitting room is the kitchen/dining room, positioned to the rear of the property and forming the heart of the home. The kitchen is arranged with fitted units and worktop space, while still allowing room for a dining table and chairs, ideal for family meals, home working or informal gatherings. The layout feels practical and sociable, with good natural light enhancing the space. A rear door provides direct access outside, adding to everyday convenience.

Also on the ground floor is a WC, neatly set away from the main reception space and fitted with the usual sanitary ware, making it ideal for both residents and guests.

Upstairs, the first floor offers two well-scaled bedrooms, both capable of accommodating double beds. The principal bedroom is particularly well balanced, with space for wardrobes and additional furniture, while the second bedroom is similarly versatile, lending itself equally well to use as a guest room, home office or second double.
