THE PROPERTY

A delightful, detached Grade II listed character cottage with an attached annexe and a wonderful cottage garden. The home is set in a desirable village location with wonderful local walks. The cottage has a wealth of charm and character.

ACCOMMODATION

This deceptively large cottage has three double bedrooms, two reception rooms, two bathrooms and an integral one double bedroom annexe. Set in a popular village with wonderful local walks, including "Brian May's Wood" local village pubs, a shop, a post office and a doctor's surgery.

OUTSIDE

The home has a wonderful cottage-style garden, which is private and secluded. The garden is accessed from the kitchen, and there is a further garden area wrapping around the annexe. The street itself is extremely quiet and is within walking distance of all shops, pubs and amenities

SITUATION

Situated in a popular village location with easy access to the Jurassic Coast, Wareham, Blandford and Dorchester. The village has two pubs, a post office, a shop and a doctor's surgery. The area also boasts superb walks and a local recreational ground.
