SITUATION:

Regent Place forms part of an upmarket development adjacent to Dunorlan Park just off Kingswood Road in the St. Peters quarter of Tunbridge Wells. It is a peaceful and private location but still offering good access to Tunbridge Wells town centre as well as the Nuffield Hospital on nearby Kingswood Road. Dunorlan Park is famous as a local beauty spot with good walking and recreational areas and forms a peaceful buffer around the development.

Tunbridge Wells itself has a wide range of social, retail and educational facilities including a number of sports and social clubs, a host of primarily multiple retailers in the Royal Victoria Place Shopping Mall and nearby North Farm Retail Park with an impressive run of independent retailers, restaurants and bars located principally between Mount Pleasant and the Pantiles. The town has a mainline railway station offering fast and frequent services to both London termini and the South Coast.
