GUIDE PRICE - £375,000 - £400,000 Positioned favourably along a sought after residential turning in the heart of Burnham within walking distance to it's historic High Street, picturesque river frontage, country park and railways station with direct links into London Liverpool Street, is this stylishly improved, extended and wonderfully presented semi-detached family home. Spacious living accommodation commences on the ground floor with an entrance porch leading to a hallway which in turn provides access to a light and airy living/dining room, stunning refitted kitchen with integrated appliances and family room at the rear with adjoining utility room/WC. The first floor then offers a spacious landing area leading to three well proportioned bedrooms and a luxurious refitted family bathroom. Externally, the property enjoys a well maintained rear garden with impressively sized storage shed while the frontage offers extensive off road parking via a block paved driveway to both the front and side of the house, which also offers the possibility to extend the living accommodation further (stpp). An early viewing of this quite superb property is strongly advised to avoid missing out. Energy Rating E.

BURNHAM-ON-CROUCH:

Burnham-on-Crouch is a picturesque town on the banks of the River Crouch, a renown yachting and sailing centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of a little over 9,500 and is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula. Consequently it boasts many amenities that are uncommon in small towns including two primary schools and an academy secondary school, independent cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, three yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets and numerous individual shops, public houses and restaurants. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.
