

Point West, Cromwell Road, South Kensington £2,999 Per Calendar Month

Positioned on the sixth floor of a well-regarded development in South Kensington, this bright and generously proportioned one-bedroom apartment is presented in excellent condition and benefits from lift access.

The development, Point West, provides a range of on-site amenities including a residents' gym, concierge service, and underground parking (available by separate arrangement). Ideally located, the property is within easy walking distance of South Kensington station and the surrounding museum district.

This apartment is particularly well suited to students at Imperial College London, given its proximity and convenient transport links.
