£350,000

A charming cottage located in the town centre of Seaford. Offering 2 double bedrooms, a private rear garden, living room and a superb dining/garden room.

Stunningly presented throughout this charming cottage has a wealth of character and charm. The living room is located to the front with exposed beams and a large inglenook style fireplace taking centre place. A door leads through to the light and surprisingly spacious tiled dining area and 'garden lounge' that overlooks the rear garden - a lantern roof sits above the lounge area. A door leads to the kitchen with a further door and window leading into the garden. To the first floor you have the first of the double bedrooms with built in cupboards and original fireplace. The properties spacious and refitted modern walk-in shower room/wc is also located on the first floor. Stairs lead up to a the 2nd floor which is the second generous double bedroom - having a through aspect the room has plenty of light.

Outside the L- shaped rear garden is private with a westerly aspect. Predominately laid to lawn the garden has established flower borders, shed , as well as 2 patio areas with a crazy stoned pathway leading between.

Church Street is situated in 'old Seaford' town, ideally located within 5 minutes' walk of the unspoilt seafront and town centre. With a regular coastal bus service to Eastbourne - Brighton and beyond as well as the local railway running trains to Newhaven port, Lewes, Brighton, Gatwick and London (Victoria 90 mins). The town offers a wide range of shopping facilities and useful resources including schools for all age groups.
