Cirencester

Cirencester is an historic Roman town which became an important centre for the wool trade in medieval times. Today it is a thriving market town. The property occupies a desirable situation. Shopping in Cirencester is highly regarded, off the main streets there are many interesting back lanes with specialist shops, particularly Black Jack Street. On the outskirts of the town are two supermarkets (Waitrose and Tesco) as well as a Hospital. A new Leisure Centre was opened in 2006 and one of the oldest open-air pools in the country is a short walk. A gate to the 2500 acre Cirencester Park, belonging to the Bathurst family and open during the day, is also a short walk off Cecily Hill. Many concerts are given in the Church and there are talented local choirs and amateur dramatic groups. Within about half an hour's drive are the towns of Cheltenham, Gloucester and Swindon. Bath, Oxford and Stratford are about an hour by car, with superb cultural and recreational facilities. Private and State schools in the area are excellent, such as Beaudesert, Deer Park, Kingshill, Prior Park, Rendcomb and Hatherop Castle.

Kemble airfield has facilities for small aircraft and Aston Down is a gliding centre. Cirencester has had a golf course for over 100 years and others are at Minchinhampton, Burford and Naunton. Superb horse racing takes place at Cheltenham, as well as at meetings at Newbury and Bath. Sailing is available on the lakes between Cirencester and Swindon

Amenities

The Avenue is located in a much sought-after location due to its proximity to the town centre which is within walking distance. Cirencester is deservedly known as the "Capital of the Cotswolds" and is extremely accessible, being at the intersection of the Fosse Way and Ermin Way. The latter provides virtual dual carriage access to both the M4 at Swindon and the M5 at Gloucester/Cheltenham. There is a fast and regular Great Western Train service from Kemble (about 3.5 miles) to London Paddington which takes approximately 75 minutes with stops at Swindon, Didcot and Reading.'

Description

To the ground floor a well proportioned reception hall gives access to the ground floor accommodation with a useful and practical downstairs cloakroom/WC to side. The lounge benefits from a dual aspect with large and period windows to the front aspect flooding the room with light. This room boasts a period stone fireplace with fitted 'Clear view' woodburner, a spacious room with ample space for soft furnishing. The present vendors have recently refitted the kitchen/dining/family room with a contemporary and stylish kitchen benefiting from a comprehensive range of storage. This room is dual aspect with large picture windows to front and a large open dining area. The first floor benefits from three well proportioned bedrooms, of special mention is the master suite with extensive built-in storage and a large en suite full bathroom with bath and separate shower cubicle. A modern family bathroom services the remaining bedrooms in this family home. The property is presented in excellent order by the present vendors and benefits from an efficient gas fired central heating system. We would draw applicants notice to the EPC rating which we believe reflects an efficient modern home for a period stone building.

Outside

To the front of The Coach house there is off road parking for two cars with the provision for an EV charger with path leading to the entrance door. The property benefits from two areas of garden, to the front a good sized courtyard laid to a low maintenance format and enjoying a good degree of privacy. To the other side of the coach house there is an enclosed lawned garden with established patio area and a timber shed for storage, this would provide ideal space for small animals or young children.
