Why you'll like it

This two-bedroom ground-floor flat at Redman Garth, Haworth, combines distinctive arched windows and traditional character with communal gardens, far-reaching countryside views and an allocated parking space.

Set within a stone-built building, the flat offers a sitting room with two tall windows, ceiling coving and a feature fireplace with a timber surround and tiled inset. There is room for a range of seating, creating a comfortable main living space.

The separate kitchen is fitted with light wood-effect wall and base units, complementary worktops and a stainless-steel sink. Space is provided for freestanding cooking and laundry appliances, while a small dining area beside the tall arched window offers a pleasant spot for everyday meals.

Both bedrooms accommodate double beds, with space for freestanding storage. Tall windows and deep reveals reflect the building's character, with one bedroom benefiting from windows on two sides, including an attractive arched window.

The bathroom comprises a bath with an electric shower above, wash basin and WC, complemented by tiled walls and a built-in timber storage cupboard.

Outside, residents have use of communal gardens with lawns, established planted borders and paved pathways enclosed by traditional stone walls. The gardens enjoy an expansive outlook across the surrounding fields and valley, providing an attractive setting to spend time outdoors. One allocated parking space completes the property.

PLEASE NOTE This property is offered with no onward chain and is only available to over 55's. With purchase of 75% with rent payable on the remaining 25%.
