174A High Street is a spacious two-bedroom property located in the centre of Bangor on the High Street, a short walk to the main University buildings and close to all local shops and bars. The property has two double bedrooms, each with a double bed and storage furniture. There is also a large bathroom with walk-in shower, a separate WC and a spare room that would be great used as a study or even a band room. There is also a kitchen with oven and fridge-freezer and a living room with two sofas, coffee table, TV stand and dining furniture. The great location of this property means it's right next to large supermarkets and within walking distance of Bangor train station.
