Stapleford and the Shelfords are thriving villages about 2 miles south of the city and is especially desirable to those looking for easy access into Cambridge from a traditional and attractive village.

They have an Ofsted 'Good' primary schools that feeds Sawston Village College (2 miles), great pubs, two small supermarkets, garage, selling cars and the benefit of a petrol filling station, hairdresser, beauty salon and barber, deli, café and butchers. Further facilities including a GP surgery and dentist can be found along with a library large recreation ground, restaurants, tennis club and social clubs. The Gog Magog Hills, trust land, golf club and Wandlebury Country Park are at the northern edge of the village.

Easy access to town and Addenbrooke's by road, regular buses, car-free purpose-built cycleways and train from its mainline railway station that also goes direct to London Liverpool Street.

It is a great community for those looking for a balance of convenience and traditional village feel and offers the real possibility of living day-to-day without the need to regularly drive out of the village.
