SITUATION
The property sits towards the edge of the popular rural village of Merton with easy access to the A386, linking North Devon and Okehampton. Merton is well known for its large village square flanked by a number of period houses and cottages, together with parish church. Facilities include a primary school, local inn and superb modern village hall with excellent sports and community facilities. The village itself is surrounded by rolling typically Devon countryside, the Torridge valley being famous for its connection with Tarka the Otter and the well known Tarka Trail with walking and cycling runs close to the village. There is easy access to the market towns of Great Torrington and Bideford to the north and Hatherleigh and Okehampton to the south. From Okehampton there is direct access to the A30 dual carriage way providing a direct link to Exeter with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections. The Dartmoor National Park is accessible at Okehampton whilst the north coasts of Devon and Cornwall have delightful beaches and attractive coastal scenery.

DESCRIPTION
Occupying a pleasant position within this favoured Devon village, this attractive Grade II listed detached cottage blends historic charm with modern living. Offered in excellent decorative order throughout, the property retains a wealth of authentic period features, including exposed timbers and beams, alongside period fireplaces complete with traditional cloam ovens, now served by two multi-fuel stoves and supplemented by recently installed wifi controlled independent electric radiators.
The ground floor accommodation offers a charming snug, a practical utility room, a beautifully fitted family bathroom with shower and an additional shower room, all centered around a stylish modern country kitchen/dining room. Accessed via two separate staircases, the first floor offers four comfortable, well-appointed bedrooms. Outside, the property enjoys well-tended gardens to both the front and rear, featuring a large garden room with a fitted bar that provides a superb space for entertaining. A generous front courtyard offers ample off-road parking and a pleasant patio area, together with a storage shed and store. Within recent months, the owners have acquired a large stone barn which fronts the courtyard, suitable for garaging/workshop or other uses subject to the necessary consents. together with two additional adjoining parcels of garden/land which will appeal to the keen gardener or those needing space for pets etc.
