SITUATION & AMENITIES

Heathmoor lies within Exmoor National Park, on high ground, and enjoys a wide expanse of everchanging moorland views. The West Exmoor coastal path is close by and takes in 6 miles of towering cliffs and secluded coves, wooded river valleys and heather moorland - 'An area of outstanding beauty, a heritage coast and adjacent to National Trust land and a special site of scientific interest'. Popular destinations are Heddons Valley, between the hamlets of Trentishoe and Martinhoe, where the moor meets the sea below the Hunters Inn. The nearby villages of Combe Martin and Lynton & Lynmouth offer a good selection of local amenities, with the larger towns of Ilfracombe and Barnstaple offering a wider range of facilities and regional amenities. As the regional centre, Barnstaple offers the area's main business, commercial, leisure and shopping venues as well as District Hospital. At Barnstaple, access can be gained, in a further 45 minutes or so, to Jct.27 of the M5 Motorway, where Tiverton Parkway offers a fast service of trains to London Paddington in just over 2 hours. Some of the regions best sandy surfing beaches are not far away at Croyde, Saunton (also with Championship Golf Course), Putsborough and Woolacombe.
