For Sale Freehold Offers In The Region Of £269,950

Tucked away within a cul de sac in the sought after village of Middlestown is this well presented three bedroom semi detached home. Offering generous living space, the property further benefits from gardens to both the front and rear, off road parking, and a detached single garage, making it an opportunity not to be missed.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall with staircase rising to the first floor landing and a door leading into the living room. The living room opens into the dining room, which in turn provides access to the fitted kitchen positioned to the rear of the property. To the first floor landing there is loft access and doors leading to three bedrooms and the house bathroom. Externally, the property enjoys a lawned front garden alongside a concrete driveway providing off road parking and leading to a single detached garage with up and over door. To the rear is a generously sized, low maintenance garden featuring a large paved patio area ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining, complemented by planted beds, stone boundary walls, and fencing, with space for a summerhouse if desired. The garden is fully enclosed, offering a good degree of privacy.

Middlestown is an ideal location for a wide range of buyers, conveniently positioned for local shops, schools, and well regarded public houses. A broader range of amenities can be found in nearby towns and cities including Wakefield, Ossett, and Horbury. Local bus routes serve the area, while mainline train stations at Wakefield Westgate, Wakefield Kirkgate, and Dewsbury provide excellent commuter links. The M1 motorway is also within easy reach, making this an excellent choice for those needing to travel further afield.

An early internal inspection is highly recommended to fully appreciate what this home has to offer. The property would make an ideal purchase for a first time buyer, growing family, or professional couple, and viewings are strongly advised to avoid disappointment.
