THE PROPERTY

Sold (stc) by Adams

Built as The King's School in 1618, Jacobean House is one of the finest and most prominent period houses in Winchcombe.

The current owner has overseen a major programme of renovation works resulting in the creation of superb living space whilst retaining the fascinating character of the original Grade II Listed C17th building.

The ground floor is a wonderful sociable space with its semi open-plan living room and kitchen/dining areas complete with an Aga, flagstone flooring and gas fire.

The first floor comprises two comfortable bedrooms with original fireplaces and beautifully exposed timbers and these rooms are served by a modern shower room. The hallway from this level leads to the rear garden.

The dual aspect principal bedroom on the top floor has its own bathroom with free standing roll-top bath.

The immaculately maintained and landscaped rear garden has been designed for ease of maintenance and the detached annexe consists of a bedroom and separate shower room/laundry which would serve equally well for guests as it would as a home office.

Available with no onward chain.
