Property Introduction

This three bedroom end of terrace house is located on the outskirts of Falmouth and would give someone a unique opportunity to improve upon and update throughout. It has a lounge, kitchen/diner and a downstairs cloakroom, on the first floor are three bedrooms and a modern bathroom.

There is also a store room attached to the property which many people have converted to provide an extra room.

The rear garden is fully fenced and has two patio spaces with flower beds and there is also a garage in a block to the rear.

Location

Arundell Gardens is in a popular, residential, traffic free location set between Dracaena Avenue, Oakfield Road and Lambs Lane and is convenient for amenities and local schooling. Falmouth has four beautiful beaches to choose from and Gyllyngvase, one of the most popular, is just one mile distant.

Falmouth is a sought after location that offers so much to include the National Maritime Museum, Pendennis Castle, a multi-screen cinema, a wide range of restaurants, bars and cafes and a large variety of retail outlets. Falmouth boasts three trains stations that provide transport links to Penryn, Truro and beyond.
