THE PROPERTY

Black Grace Cowley are delighted to offer 13 Auburn Road to the market. This well presented period mid terraced home sits in an elevated position within a quiet cul-de-sac in Onchan.

To the front there are steps leading to the front door and a raised patio garden. Entering the property via the double glazed door which leads into the vestibule porch with access through to the entrance hall. The entrance hall has tile effect flooring, carpeted stairs leading up to the 1st floor and original coving and period features throughout, understairs storage cupboard. Off the entrance hall, there are two doors, one leads into the bay fronted lounge and the other into the dining room. Both rooms are open to each other, offering plenty of natural light, dual aspect double glazed windows, including a large bay window to the front. Feature electric fireplace to the lounge, and carpeted floors throughout. At the end of the entrance hall there is a door into a utility room/boot room, offering a versatile space with a uPVC double glazed window, built in shelving and space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer. A step leads up to the kitchen, which is fitted with a range of contemporary white wall and base units with black detailed handles and wood effect worktops incorporating a breakfast bar and undercounter wine fridge. Integrated fridge freezer and gas combi boiler. Dual aspect uPVC double glazed windows and a double glazed door giving access out to the rear courtyard.
