Recently refurbished period townhouse is a seamless fusion of cosy contemporary & historic charm with garden

This three-bedroom end-of-terrace home has been sensitively refurbished recently. Accommodation includes versatile living space which flows seamlessly from the Entrance Hall and adjacent Sitting Room, through to open-plan Dining Room and split-level Kitchen area beyond. There are a wealth of period details including stripped pine doors, exposed oak floors and retained feature fireplaces. Of particular note is the capacious cellar which could double as Study / Media Room potential, a completely refurbished kitchen – fitted with a full range of appliances, the sumptuously appointed bathroom with walk-in shower and the principal top floor bedroom with array of built-in wardrobes and en-suite wc. All windows are fitted with either curtains or privacy blinds. A range of calming Farrow & Ball paints have been used to best effect throughout the bedrooms, bathroom and basement.

Partly laid to lawn, the tranquil tiered low-maintenance landscaped rear garden with sun terrace and is fully enclosed and pet-friendly. Useful garden store. Permit parking is available.

46 Garland Street is conveniently located within the historic Cathedral town of Bury St. Edmunds and is situated in arguably one of the most desirable residential enclaves (a golden triangle formed by intersecting Well Street & Orchard Street). Close proximity to both Northgate Street for excellent A14 access and vibrant St. John's Street with its eclectic range of independent shopping boutiques. Also on neighbouring Cannon Street is Pea Porridge (Suffolk's first Michelin star restaurant) and The Cannon MicroBrewery. The bars and restaurants of Abbeygate Street and the Market Square are nearby with Marks & Spencer and Starbucks just a couple of minutes walk away! DISCOVER SUFFOLK

Bury St. Edmunds is an extremely attractive and prosperous market town located in the heart of Suffolk. The A14 gives fast access to the east coast ports, Ipswich, Cambridge, the Midlands and to Stansted and Cambridge Airports, as well as London via the M11. The Arc is the town's latest, modern retail outlet and is a popular shopping destination. All major food stores are well-represented, including Waitrose. There is a twice-weekly open-market in addition to a variety of eateries, attractions and places to stay. The Millennium Tower that crowns St. Edmundsbury Cathedral is the landmark. There is plenty on offer to keep families entertained. The Apex Arts Centre is a state-of-the-art live entertainment venue which hosts exhibitions and events. Watch a great performance at the Theatre Royal – the only surviving Regency playhouse in England. Other amenities include a range of health clubs, swimming pools and leisure facilities. Bury St. Edmunds has a real sense of community and is a truly friendly town.

Horseracing is at neighbouring Newmarket, a number of interesting golf courses nearby, sailing and water sports on the River Orwell and an outstanding 50 mile (80 km) heritage coastline and an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty encompassing Aldeburgh and Southwold.
