Details

Entrance Lobby

An external uPVC door with opaque glazed panels and a matching overlight gives access into the entrance lobby. This has laminate flooring, a staircase rising to the first floor accommodation and an oak internal door opens into the living room. The lobby is presented to a high standard and sets the tone for the remaining accommodation.

Living Room

This light and bright room is positioned at the front of the property and enjoys a southerly aspect, with a large uPVC window maximising natural lighting, complemented by a neutral colour palette. The focal point of the room is a glazed door Flavel multi-fuel stove, standing on a stone hearth and recessed to the chimney breast with an oak mantel above. There is provision for a wall-mounted TV above. The room has plenty of space for furniture, a continuation of the oak effect flooring and a radiator. An oak internal door leads into the kitchen.

Kitchen

The kitchen is positioned at the rear of the property and has a continuation of the oak effect flooring. It has contemporary units to high and low levels, with working surfaces, tiled splashbacks and a stainless steel sink. Integrated appliances comprise a Bosch fan oven, an induction hob with a canopy style filter hood above, a slimline dishwasher and a fridge. There is LED lighting within the base unit plinths and the worktops extend to create a small breakfast bar. The room has ceiling downlighting, a rear uPVC window and a matching external door to that in the entrance lobby. There is also a radiator. An oak internal door leads to steps, which give access to the lower ground floor. At the bottom of the steps, there is space for freestanding appliances, such as a fridge freezer.
