THE PROPERTY

A welcoming porch leads into the spacious 14'6 lounge, where exposed beams and a central brick fireplace with woodburning stove set the tone for this character-rich home. At the rear, the extended 20'2 kitchen/diner is a true heart of the home - complete with a butler sink and garden access - with a separate utility adjoining.

A flexible 3rd bedroom sits on the ground floor, ideal as a study or snug. Upstairs, 2 charming bedrooms include a spectacular main with vaulted ceiling and feature fireplace, plus a modern shower room.

Thoughtfully updated, blending history and comfort with modern practicality, the home boasts original features throughout while offering a layout suited to both relaxed family life and stylish entertaining - a perfect match for those seeking character without compromise.

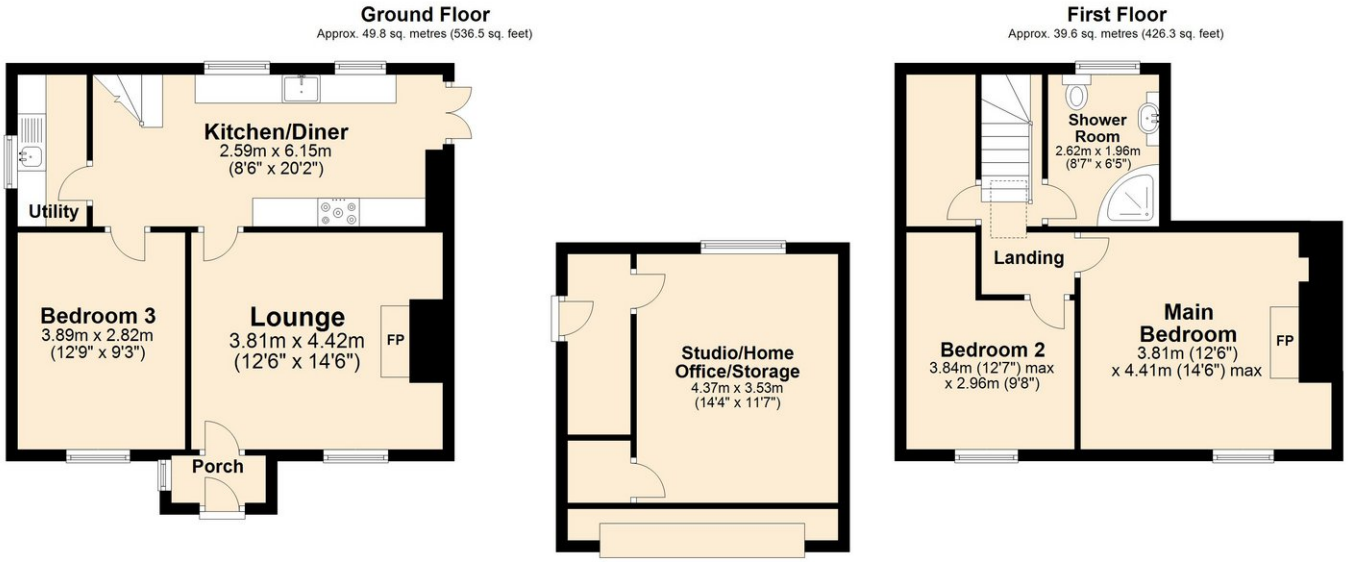

THE OUTSIDE

To the front, a generous lawned garden, housing the septic tank, is bordered by a traditional brick wall and sets a picturesque tone, with countryside views and a raised seating area ideal for enjoying the peaceful surroundings. To the side, a shingled driveway provides ample off-road parking for multiple vehicles, with a utility pole on the boundary, leading to a double garage offering excellent workspace potential (STPP).

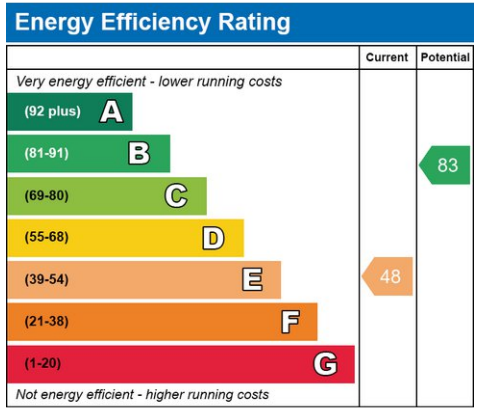

A shingle area between the house and garage leads through to the oil tank and wooden gate to the garden. The rear garden is a private courtyard-style space with access from the kitchen/diner, perfect for entertaining. A charming feature well offers a nod to the home's rural history and adds to the garden's timeless appeal.

THE AREA

Eccles is a charming Norfolk village offering the perfect blend of rural tranquillity and excellent connectivity. Ideally situated with easy access to the A11, it provides swift road links to Norwich, Cambridge and beyond. The nearby train station also offers direct services to both Norwich and Cambridge, making it an ideal location for commuters. The popular market town of Attleborough is situated around 5 miles away, providing a wide range of amenities including primary and secondary schools, supermarkets, doctor's surgery and various bus routes. Surrounded by picturesque countryside, Eccles allows residents to enjoy scenic walks and a peaceful village atmosphere, offering a desirable location for those seeking a balance between countryside living and convenient transport links.

Total area: approx. 89.4 sq. metres (962.8 sq. feet)

DIRECTIONS
