O'Riordan Bond is thrilled to offer for sale this super impressive and much extended two double bedroom Victorian terraced home that is completely different to other seemingly similar properties in the area and an early viewing is highly recommended. Located within close proximity of the general hospital and a short walk of the town centre, this substantial property is in exceptionally good order.

The accommodation comprises entrance into a large open plan living space, a cloaks cupboard and cloakroom/WC and a large contemporary kitchen/dining room with feature roof lantern. To the first floor are two double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a large shower room. Outside is a covered courtyard rear garden with outside fireplace with chimney. Further benefits include gas radiator heating and uPVC double glazing. (A/945/S)
