Situated just 250 yards away from the shoreline, 38 Kimbridge Road is an excellent, stylish family home which provides a spacious and relaxed open-plan living space comprising a modern kitchen/diner with integrated appliances and a rear single storey extension forming the garden room with bi-fold doors. On the first floor the accommodation presents as two double bedrooms with built in wardrobes, one single bedroom and two high specification, modern bathrooms.

Outside the property benefits from a West-facing rear garden with low maintenance lawn, composite decking, an outside shower cubicle, some raised planting boxes, a large greenhouse and a generous garden studio/office equipped with electricity, heating and internet. To the front of the property there is a paved driveway with room to park 2 vehicles and an attached single garage.

The nearby shoreline is located just a mere moments' walk down the road and through the nearby Twitten.
