Room available within Flat 7 of this newly converted building in Worthing Town Centre (three rooms in total). The flat has a communal kitchen with oven and hob plus washing machine and each individual room has its own en suite shower room with wc, plus a small utility area with sink and fridge. There is also a free standing wardrobe and new double bed. The rooms are all well presented with modern LVT flooring, double glazed windows and electric heating. Council tax and water rates are included within the rent but each room is separately metered for electricity use (electricity in communal areas included in rent). North Street is a great convenient location between the Town Centre and Worthing Station and is handy for local supermarkets. EPC C.
