'OLD RAWDALE FARM', 22, Market Place,
South Cave, HU15 2BP
Guide Price £425,000

ABOUT THE PROPERTY

RESIDENTIAL & COMMERCIAL OPPORTUNITY

A rare and exciting opportunity to acquire 'Old Rawdale Farm', steeped in history and charm this characterful period property with adjoining commercial premises, set in the heart of this sought-after village of South Cave - dates back to circa 1780, the main residence offers quintessential charm and tremendous scope for development. The current accommodation includes two bedrooms, two reception rooms flanking the entrance hall, a breakfast kitchen, and a downstairs bathroom — with clear potential to extend and reimagine the layout to suit modern living.

Adjoining the farmhouse is 22a Market Place, a commercial element with prime road frontage (formerly a hair salon) and a rear workshop currently used for soft furnishings. Subject to the necessary permissions, this space could be converted and integrated into the main residence, offering exciting flexibility for a home-business setup or an expanded family home.

To the rear, access via Rawdale Close leads to a generous driveway, garaging, and forecourt parking for multiple vehicles, along with a private raised garden providing a delightful outdoor retreat. You are afforded this superb opportunity to create a truly unique property in a central and highly desirable location.

Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the character, potential, and versatility on offer.
