Offers Over £275,000

A well-presented, five -bedroom Traditional Attached Villa situated in an excellent central location in Helensburgh.

The property has an excellent Bungalow style feel as the majority of the rooms (including a lovely downstairs shower room) are all on the lower level which means this could be ideal for someone looking for this type of accommodation but with the benefit of guest or visitor bedrooms on the upper floor.

The property is also within walking distance of all surrounding shops and amenities and would make an excellent home or be perfect for someone looking for a centrally located Helensburgh property.

West King Street is located through the central area of Helensburgh, making it the ideal location for accessing all the town has to offer within close proximity.

The building itself is constructed with brick beneath a tiled roof and offers a private, spacious rear garden which is fully slabbed.

Internally, the house is in excellent condition throughout, with spacious rooms, fresh decoration, and a modern-style kitchen and bathrooms.

The accommodation comprises a double-glazed front porch, a bright reception hallway with a staircase featuring a stylish banister, and a bay-windowed main lounge/living room with a feature wall and light carpets.
