Situation

Primmers Place forms part of a popular, modern development on the western side of Westbury, within easy walking distance of the town's train station which provides access to London. Westbury is a market town which sits on the western edge of Salisbury Plain and offers a good range of local shopping and leisure facilities, primary and secondary schooling. Nearby Warminster, Trowbridge and the City of Bath provide a more extensive range of leisure, retail and schooling with the A350 providing good access to the M4 and A303.
