Summary

Situated in an extremely popular and family-friendly part of Brandon, this extended detached bungalow offers fantastic space, versatility and a prime position-making it a brilliant purchase for families, downsizers, or anyone looking for single-storey living with room to grow.

Set within a quiet residential estate, the property is just a short walk to Brandon's bustling High Street, offering a wide range of amenities including shops, supermarkets, takeaways, primary and secondary schools, and a mainline train station with direct connections to Cambridge and Norwich.

Enclosed by privacy hedging and fencing, this home enjoys a lovely sense of seclusion from the outset. There's also off-road parking and a garage, offering great practicality.

Inside, a welcoming hallway flows through the heart of the home, leading to a well-equipped kitchen that connects through to the dining room-a perfect social hub for hosting family and friends. A separate spacious yet cosy living room provides further relaxation space. The bungalow also benefits from four good-sized bedrooms, a four-piece family bathroom, and internal garage access for added convenience.

Outside, the beautifully maintained rear garden offers a private, tranquil setting-ideal for relaxing, entertaining, or cultivating further to your tastes.

Viewing is essential to appreciate the size, layout and location on offer.
