The apartment is located in the popular and charming Stone Mill Court development. Stone Mill Court is a mid-19th-century Grade 2 listed converted mill complex.

The site's history is fascinating. Stone Mill Court stands on the site of a medieval water corn mill used by monks from Kirkstall Abbey in the early 13th century. Milling continued until 1785, when Thomas Martin used the mill for paper making, and it became known as Wood Mills. In 1852, the mill burnt down, and the present mill was built as a tannery for Samuel Smith. It became a fellmongers in 1914 and closed in 1994, when it was converted into beautiful residential apartments.

The Stone Mill Court development, also known locally as Tannery Park or The Old Tannery, has plenty of character and charm. The development is only a stone's throw from Meanwood Park, the Meanwood Valley Trail and the centre of Meanwood, making it an extremely popular place to reside.

The centre of Meanwood has an abundance of amenities, including the highly regarded Waitrose Home and Food hall, cafes, vibrant bars, pubs and restaurants, which are all within walking distance. The Northside Retail Park has an Aldi and much more.

Headingly is a short distance from the apartment, and the city centre is around three miles.

Local schools are excellent, and the leisure facilities are superb, with Meanwood Park and The Hollies only a short walk from the property. Several gyms, including a David Lloyd Leisure Club, are on the property's doorstep.

The apartment benefits from being situated on the first floor, boasting some great views out over the development. The apartment has extremely high ceilings and large windows throughout. It comprises a commanding hallway. The hallway leads to the open plan living space, which comprises a kitchen, sitting room & dining room area, principal bedroom with en suite, bedroom two, the main bathroom and a storage/cloak cupboard.
