

35 Postern Road, Tatenhill, DE13 9SJ

Residing within a secluded and immaculate gated plot is this traditional 1920s detached home, benefitting from generously extended interiors, three excellent double bedrooms and an enviable setting overlooking far reaching rural views. Having been remodelled to create an open plan living space and a larger third bedroom, this immaculately presented home offers further potential to extend to the rear and over the existing ground floor, to create a fourth bedroom or second bathroom. A five-bar gate opens into the expansive tarmac driveway, leading in turn to the single garage. The traditional arched entrance door opens into a porch with original Minton tiles, leading in turn to the central reception hall and on into two well proportioned reception rooms. The open plan kitchen has a breakfast bar as well as a living area overlooking pleasant garden views, and a utility/rear hall and cloakroom are also set to the ground floor. The first floor landing opens into three generously proportioned double bedrooms having use of the modern family bathroom. A window from the landing provides ideal potential to extend over the utility and cloakroom to create a fourth bedroom, and all three bedrooms enjoy pleasant views both over Postern Road and over open countryside to the rear. The rear garden extends to a superb size, being immaculately tended and having a summer house included in the sale. The property is serviced by mains gas central heating (2024 boiler) and double glazed windows.

Postern Road resides part way between the desirable rural villages of Anslow and Tatenhill, being a prestigious address and combining the ideals of easy access to amenities as well as a scenic semi-rural location. The traditional village of Tatenhill is home to a popular local pub, village hall, a bowling green and the Adventure Farm and National Forest Maize Maze, and Further amenities including a Post Office, pharmacy, doctors surgery and Holland Sports Club can be found in Barton under Needwood which is just 5 miles away.

Accessible within a few minutes' drive, the market town of Burton on Trent is home to a superb range of shopping and leisure facilities including a cinema, shopping centres, cafes, restaurants and a library. The village is conveniently placed for access to the A515, A38 and A50, with a regular public bus route running close by and a train station located in Burton on Trent providing direct links to Derby and Birmingham. The area is also well served by Ofsted rated 'Outstanding' schools including All Saints Primary at Rangemore and John Taylor High School in Barton under Needwood, with the John Taylor Free School also being within a short drive.
