Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Situated in Cauldon Close; a popular cul-de-sac on the outskirts of the historic market town of Leek, this beautifully presented detached bungalow occupies a generous plot and offers spacious, well designed accommodation that has been upgraded and maintained to an excellent standard by the current owners. Ideally positioned within easy reach of highly regarded West End schools, local supermarkets and the town centre, and with some of the Staffordshire Moorlands most beautiful countryside on the doorstep, the property combines peaceful residential living with exceptional convenience.

An entrance porch leads on to a welcoming entrance hallway which provides access throughout the home. The impressive living and dining room extends along one side of the property, creating an excellent space for both everyday family life and entertaining, featuring a multi-fuel stove which forms an attractive focal point, while patio doors open directly onto the rear courtyard. The room also flows seamlessly into the breakfast kitchen, enhancing the sociable layout.

The breakfast kitchen is fitted with a range of solid wood cabinets, individually hand-painted and complemented by elegant granite work surfaces. Offering generous preparation space together with ample storage, it provides both practicality and timeless style.

To the rear of the property, the principal bedroom enjoys a peaceful outlook over the garden and benefits from a range of fitted clothes storage together with a well-appointed en-suite shower room. The second bedroom is positioned to the front of the property and is a spacious double guest bedroom, enjoying a pleasant outlook through an attractive bay window. A family shower room completes the internal accommodation.

Externally, the property is approached via a private driveway providing ample off-road parking, bordered by a well-stocked front garden with an abundance of mature shrubs and planting. The driveway continues to an attached garage, fitted with an insulated electric up-and-over door and offering excellent storage for vehicles, bicycles, gardening equipment and household items, whilst also providing the convenience of direct access into the entrance porch.

To the rear, the property enjoys a delightful and private landscaped garden, thoughtfully arranged over several levels. A paved courtyard immediately adjoins the bungalow, creating the perfect setting for outdoor dining and entertaining. Steps rise through beautifully stocked flower beds, mature rockeries and winding pathways to a series of attractive seating terraces, which lead on to an elevated garden area where families can relax and children can play. Here, a fish pond provides a tranquil focal point together with a timber summerhouse, completing this wonderfully established garden that offers both privacy and year-round interest.

Occupying a sizeable plot in one of Leek's most desirable residential locations, this wonderful bungalow presents a rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully maintained home offering generous accommodation, landscaped gardens and excellent access to schools, amenities and the vibrant town centre.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
