Beyond, the inner hallway gives access to the remaining ground floor accommodation and stairs rising to the first floor. A practical shower room is located on this level, fitted with a shower enclosure, wash basin and WC.

The sitting room is a particularly impressive feature of the home. Generous in size and extending across the rear of the property, it provides ample space for both seating and entertaining. A fireplace housing a Living Flame gas fire forms an attractive focal point, while large sliding patio doors draw natural light into the room and open directly onto the garden, creating an easy connection with the outdoor space during the warmer months.

A further reception room sits adjacent to the hallway, created from the conversion of the former integrated garage. Currently unfinished, it represents an excellent opportunity for a purchaser to complete to their own specification. Whether used as a home office, playroom, hobby room, guest accommodation or fifth bedroom, the space offers considerable flexibility to suit changing needs.

Upstairs, the accommodation continues with four well-proportioned bedrooms arranged around a central landing. The two principal bedrooms are both comfortable doubles overlooking the rear garden, while the remaining bedrooms enjoy a front aspect and offer versatility for family members, guests or home working.
