Hoath Hill, Robertsbridge, TN32 5LL

Welcome to this charming extended four-bedroom semi-detached home nestled in the picturesque village of Mountfield, near Robertsbridge. The vendors have loved the location, with beautiful countryside walks on the doorstep, plenty of off-road parking, and a private garden providing a tranquil retreat. This well-presented property combines countryside charm with modern family living.

The home includes two cosy reception rooms, one of which features a log burner, perfect for relaxing or entertaining, and a well-appointed kitchen/dining room that serves as the heart of the home, a warm and inviting space for everyday meals and family gatherings.

Upstairs, there are four bedrooms, providing ample space for family and guests, along with a modern family bathroom. The home benefits from oil-fired central heating, ensuring year-round comfort.

Outside, the private rear garden offers a peaceful escape, featuring a decking area perfect for outdoor dining and enjoying the surrounding countryside views. A summer house ideal for a home office, gym, or creative studio and brick-built outbuilding with WC and storage provide excellent flexibility.

Set in an idyllic semi-rural location, the home sits close to the village hall and more beautiful countryside walks, while the historic town of Battle is just a short drive away, offering a range of shops, cafés, restaurants, and the iconic Battle Abbey.

For commuters, Battle and Robertsbridge mainline stations are both easily accessible, providing direct services to London. The nearby A21 offers quick road connections, and families will appreciate being nearby to several well-regarded secondary and primary schools.

Offering the perfect blend of rural tranquillity and modern convenience, this lovely home is ready to move into and enjoy.
