Situated on Bell Street in Barry, this newly renovated three-bedroom terraced property offers spacious and well-presented accommodation throughout, with a fresh, modern finish and a practical layout.

Upon entering, the hallway provides access to the spacious open-plan living and dining area, which is arranged into two distinct sections while remaining part of one generous reception space. To the rear of the property, the living area leads towards the garden, with the modern kitchen positioned to the left.

The kitchen has been newly renovated and provides access to the family bathroom, which features a bath with shower, wash hand basin and WC.

Continuing through the property, there is a ground-floor bedroom, providing useful and flexible accommodation.

Upstairs, there are two further bedrooms, including a particularly spacious bedroom to the front of the property. The front bedroom also benefits from the option of a wardrobe, which can be removed if preferred.

Externally, the property benefits from a small garden area, providing additional outdoor space.

Throughout the home, the property has been newly renovated, with grey carpets and wooden flooring, complemented by predominantly white, freshly finished walls, creating a bright, clean and contemporary feel.
