The Main House is arranged over four floors with the Ground Floor offering a spacious drawing room, kitchen / dining room and having both an orangery and formal dining room to the rear overlooking the grounds and providing access to a balconied terrace. The first floor offers a principle suite with walk in wardrobe, and en-suite bathroom with feature slipper bath. There are two further bedroom suites complementing this floor. On the second floor are two further bedrooms being served by a family bathroom. The Lower Ground Floor is mainly dedicated to a 37' x 20' entertainment suite, with doors leading to the stunning rear gardens, but also to a spectacular dining / wine tasting room with barrelled ceiling. There is also a private office, laundry and cloakroom.

The gardens are immaculately landscaped and maintained to the same standard as this meticulous home, which, quite simply cannot be appreciated other than by a personal visit.

Mottram St. Andrew is an affluent village in Cheshire, England, nestled in the "Golden Triangle" between Alderley Edge, Prestbury, and Wilmslow. A rural community with Saxon origins, it was recorded in the 1086 Domesday Book and adopted its unique name in the 18th century. The renowned Mottram Hall Country Hotel and Golf Club is a stone's throw away, The Bulls Head public house is within easy walking distance and the local primary school has an excellent reputation. The spacious and luxurious two bedroom detached annexe will appeal to those with elderly relatives, or perhaps enabling a child to live independently whilst they save for their first home, for live in staff such as an au-pair or for those that prefer to offer their guests independent accommodation. The accommodation extends to circa 2,000 sq ft and offers the same quality and interior design of the main house, with its own outdoor garden area.
