The Area

Castlefield is one of Manchester's most distinctive and sought-after neighbourhoods, designated as an inner-city conservation area and celebrated for its rich history, picturesque canals, and striking Victorian architecture. Once the site of the Roman fort that gave Manchester its origins, the area retains a strong connection to its past, with an array of historic landmarks and industrial heritage features woven throughout the district.

Today, Castlefield offers a vibrant lifestyle with an excellent selection of bars, restaurants, cafés, and leisure amenities. The popular Castlefield Bowl hosts a variety of outdoor concerts and live events throughout the year, while the nearby Museum of Science and Industry provides a fascinating insight into Manchester's industrial legacy.
