Location

The property is set along The Thoroughfare, overlooking St Mary's Church, in the centre of this popular market town. Halesworth has a variety of shops catering for virtually every day-to-day need. There is a primary school, library, doctors' surgery, Co-operative supermarket and numerous cafes, pubs and restaurants. The town also benefits from The Cut, a centre for arts in the community which offers music, theatre, dance, comedy, cinema, workshops and art exhibitions to the local area.

Halesworth is also well served with transport connections, having a railway station with services via Ipswich to London's Liverpool Street station. To the east of Halesworth lies the Heritage Coast which is renowned for its wide variety of leisure opportunities including the well regarded seaside resort, Southwold, (9 miles), historic Dunwich and the RSPB Reserve at Minsmere.

Description

White Lion House comprises a substantial Grade II Listed principal townhouse that is located opposite St Mary's Church in the centre of Halesworth. According to the Listing Schedule, there is a record of the building being referred to as 'Ye Lyone Inne' from 1590. The property is seemingly of timber frame and brick construction with part rendered elevations set beneath plain tile and pantile roofs.

The property extends to approximately 3,400 sq ft (316 sqm) in all and comprises an entrance hall, dining room with impressive exposed ceiling timbers and exposed brick fireplace, a capacious 30' sitting room, kitchen/breakfast room and shower room on the ground floor. On the first floor there are three double bedrooms, a single bedroom, a store room and bathroom.

Adjoining White Lion House, to the rear, is the Annexe, of which the accommodation comprises an entrance hall, L-shaped sitting/dining room with fireplace and recently refurbished kitchen on the ground floor. On the first floor there is a double bedroom, a single bedroom and recently refurbished bathroom.

On the ground floor there is a connecting door between White Lion House and the Annexe, so that accommodation could be utilised for a dependent relative if required, or alternatively let out on a longer term or Air BnB bases, subject to the necessary consents.

Whilst the property has been improved in areas, and particularly in the Annexe, it does now warrant a substantial programme of renovation and refurbishment.

Outside

White Lion House enjoys a generous town centre plot. There is vehicular access from The Thoroughfare which leads to a parking and turning area beside the garage. There is also a dilapidated timber frame storage shed, that could be refurbished to provide useful ancillary storage accommodation.

The gardens continue to the south-east beyond the garage, where a wonderful, almost secret walled garden will be found. This area has very much been left to its own devices during recent years and contains a number of established trees and shrubs, but could be reclaimed to create a charming amenity space serving White Lion House.

In all, the gardens and grounds extend to approximately 0.36 acres (0.14 Ha).

Prospective purchasers should note that the neighbouring property, number 38/38A is also for sale separately.
