Offers In The Region Of £1,200,000

A substantial extended five-bedroom family detached house with a separate three-bedroom Bungalow and indoor leisure suite, extending to over 7,000 sq ft. Set within almost an acre of private gardens, overlooking open rural countryside. This highly versatile home in the sought after village of Carlton, near Market Bosworth, and offers exceptionally space, flexibility, and privacy, ideal for multi-generational living and entertaining.

Entering through the reception hall, the scale and flexibility of the house immediately becomes apparent. At the heart of the home is a substantial open-plan kitchen, dining and living space with views across private gardens and open countryside beyond. The garden room extends along the rear of the property creating a light filled space that connects seamlessly with the principal lounge main living areas.

Upstairs are five double bedrooms, including a spacious principal bedroom with an ensuite shower, a family bathroom and a notably large landing area providing excellent flexibility for modern family living.

A standout feature of the property is the self-contained bungalow-style annex, offering a lounge and dining room of over 34 sq m, separate kitchen, three bedrooms, one with ensuite shower, plus a separate shower room. Connected with a generous utility room, it is perfectly suited to independent family living or Airbnb potential.
