SUMMARY

Grade II Listed, this recently completed cottage adjoins Bishop Percy's House which has also been restored into a tea room and garden terrace with holiday lets. The property shares its striking original beam work, which extends from the ground floor up through the cottage. The layout is totally quirky and imaginatively done to suit modern day needs.

ACCOMMODATION

Steps rise from Cartway to the front door, opening directly into the breakfast kitchen. Fitted with a range of matching base and wall base cabinets, worktops over with breakfast bar, built in oven/grill with hob above, fridge and the provision for additional appliances. The floor is tiled with windows overlooking the front aspect. A particular feature is the decorative exposed beam work, believed to incorporate original architectural timbers associated with the property's historic origins, Bishop Percy's House adding considerable character. Steps from the kitchen lead into an inner hall, which has a tiled floor and provides access to the guest cloakroom and cellars.

A turning staircase rises to the first floor landing, where a skylight floods the space with natural light. There is also a useful storage cupboard and further exposed feature beam work. A door opens into the lounge featuring part-exposed oak floorboards, two windows overlooking the front elevation and attractive exposed beam work. A further staircase rises to the second floor where a door and window provide access to a small roof area. The second floor also houses the principal double bedroom, which retains part of the original oak floorboards together with exposed beam work which extends from the ground floor. A window overlooks the front elevation. The bedroom is served by an adjoining en-suite shower room, fitted with a concealed WC, wash hand basin with vanity unit, corner shower enclosure and heated towel rail. A wall-mounted gas central heating boiler is also located within the en-suite and a window to the rear elevation.
