The property occupies a peaceful and private position within the small hamlet of Dowlands, within the Parish of Axmouth, surrounded by unspoilt countryside in the East Devon National Landscape on the Jurassic Coast. Located nearby is the renowned River Cottage Kitchen which is within easy reach. The coastal towns of Lyme Regis (approx 3 miles east) and Seaton (approx 2 miles west) offer a wide range of independent shops, beautiful beaches, restaurants, leisure facilities and attractions.

This substantial stone semi detached former estate cottage sits within the curtilage of a listed building and features a natural slate roof with timber windows. The well proportioned and adaptable accommodation includes two large reception rooms, one with an impressive fireplace and flagstone flooring, along with a kitchen and utility on the ground floor. There are five bedrooms in total, including three generous double rooms, arranged over two staircases, together with two family bathrooms.

To the front is a gravelled driveway providing parking. To the rear, the large part walled garden enjoys a generous patio leading onto a near level lawn. Two substantial timber sheds are positioned at the end of the garden. Across the lane is a partly cleared area of woodland, backing onto open fields. Covenants apply.

SERVICES Mains water and electricity. Oil fired central heating. New treatment plant being installed. Ultrafast broadband available up to 1,800 Mbps. Mobile signal outdoors with EE, Three, Vodafone and O2 (Ofcom).
