Burway Meadow

Alrewas, Burton-on-Trent, DE13 7EB

£320,000

This modern semi has been beautifully renovated to offer an immaculate village home ready to move into with an elegant and stylish interior featuring a lovely lounge, superb kitchen/diner, three bedrooms, a refitted bathroom, a wonderful sunny rear garden and driveway to front.

Set in the pretty village of Alrewas popular for its period charm, Main Street with shops, pubs and takeaways together with canalside walks. It is in John Taylor Catchment and has excellent transport links to the nearby centres of Lichfield and Burton on Trent both of which have train stations.

The property is set back beyond a driveway providing ample parking. Set beneath a canopy porch, the entrance door opens into a welcoming hall providing a lovely introduction to this beautifully presented home.

The lounge with its fireplace and space for furniture is an ideal space to relax with views to front along with a useful understairs cupboard.

Across the rear of the house is a superb refitted kitchen/diner with a breakfast bar, being an ideal space to entertain with French doors opening out to a lovely patio. The kitchen is well appointed with a range of units alongside an integrated oven, hob and wine cooler.

The landing with a window to side has doors off to three bedrooms. Bedroom one is a stylish large double bedroom with panel effect to one wall, reading lights and its own walk in wardrobe providing storage. Bedroom two is also a double with garden views and bedroom three is a single or ideal home office.

The refitted bathroom fitted with a three piece suite looks as good as new with part tiled walls.

To the rear there are stunning landscaped gardens, as you can see from the photos taken late afternoon it's a suntrap, being part walled with a paved terrace, artificial lawns for low maintenance and a side gate.
